Back-End Developer

Bogdan Staziiev

I gave myself a year to change my life and now I am in the middle of my journey. I am constantly learning and improving. I am ready to work hard, the only thing I need now is maximum practice and new challenges. I am ready to study and work, to devote all my time to this. I can work in a team, solve different problems and become better. The working repositories of the company are private, so I can share only my pet projects.
